

FICTIONAL REGULATORY CIRCULAR — FOR DEMONSTRATION ONLY

Circular No. AML/2026-07/DEMO

Date: July 15, 2026

Subject: Revision of Threshold for Reporting of Cash and Suspicious Transactions

In exercise of powers conferred under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, the threshold for reporting high-value transactions under the AML framework is hereby revised.

Current threshold: INR 10,00,000 (Rupees Ten Lakh)

Revised threshold: INR 5,00,000 (Rupees Five Lakh)

Effective date: October 1, 2026

All regulated entities shall update their transaction monitoring systems to flag transactions exceeding INR 5,00,000 with effect from the above date. Entities are advised to assess operational impact and ensure adequate resources for the expected increase in alert volumes.

This circular is purely fictional and created for hackathon demonstration purposes.
